SIX ARE KILLED IN MOVIE PANIC

Victims Are Children of From Two to Ten Years, Trampled to Death at Cry of "Fire"

ONLY SMOKE CLOUD

Paper Clogged Furnace Flue in New York East Side Theatre Causes Awful Catastrophe

New York, Nov. 14. — A paper clogged furnace flue, which caused smoke to fill the Catherine theatre, a motion picture house in the East Side Italian quarter, raised a cry of fire late today and in the ensuing panic six children between the ages of two and ten years were trampled to death. Twelve others were seriously injured.

The little theatre was crowded to capacity. Children filled most of the 300 seats, for the hero of the picture was an Italian lad who rose from humble surroundings like theirs to riches and fame. The youngsters were absorbed in the progress of the screen hero, Pietro, who was protecting his father from thieves, when smoke began to seep through the cracks of the theatre floor.

"My God, it's a fire." This shout came from an elderly woman who gathered a little one under her arms and ran for the nearest exit. Immediately loud wails arose as children began to cry. They jumped from their seats, jammed the aisles and fought for passage. The light flickered out.

Cries Attract Rescuers.

Youthful cries attracted many residents of the neighborhood, Camillo Druillo, who sells bananas from a push cart on the Bowery, rushed to the scene. He darted into the theatre, attempted to shout down the cries, failing, he saved those he could. Camillo carried more than 15 children to safety, then collapsed, overcome by smoke.

Someone sounded a fire alarm. Many, then, were carried from the theatre overcome by smoke. They were soon revived.

The most remarkable story of the occurrence was related by Camillo Alvero, 14-year-old Italian lad. Camillo was found huddled beside a stove in a fourth floor back room in Oliver street. His face was scarred where heavy shoes had stepped and his little back was a mass of welts.

"Oh, I'm all right now," he said. "But, gee, I was scared. I took my little brother, Salvatore, to the show. We were sitting there about the middle when smoke came in. Then somebody hollered fire and we jumped. I snatched Salvatore and got out to the street. Then a big man with a black mustache came down and told us to sit down, nothing was the matter. But everybody was crazy. A big fellow knocked me down in the aisle. I pushed Salvatore underneath me and then I don't remember nothin' until my ma kissed me and said. 'Bella Mio.' "

Frantic Women Crowd Scene.

Josephine Mazzio, 14, had taken her little brother and a sister, Anne and Michael, to the show. "We left," she said, "just when the smoke started coming in. Our little dog, Freda, was with us, and she barked and barked and then I couldn't hold her any longer. She ran out and I ran after her because my Pa would wollop me if I lost her."

Firemen carried the dead to nearby drug stores. The injured were sent to hospitals.

Frantic women and men, learning of the disaster, crowded before the little theatre, by this time guarded by a cordon of police and sought news of their children, who had attended the show.

A police station nearby was crowded with those seeking information of loved ones. The bodies of the victims soon were identified, but the excitement attending the panic kept children from returning to their homes and many women fought for admittance to the theatre, thinking their missing children might still be there.

Weinberg & Schwartz, the proprietors of the theatre, with A. Poland, the janitor, who made the fire in the furnace, later were arrested on a charge of "misdemeanor resulting in manslaughter by admitting children to a theatre unaccompanied by parents or guardians."

HELD FOR CHILDREN'S DEATHS

Mother Is Detained Pending Investigation of Sudden Death of Twin Babies.

Columbus, O., Nov. 14. — Mrs. Vida Worrelsweat of Vincentown, N. J., was being detained by Columbus police today for investigation into the sudden death of her three months' old twins.

Police say that when questioned, Mrs. Worrelsweat today told several different stories. According to the police, the woman admitted that two of her children also had died suddenly, but maintained that all of the deaths had been from natural causes.

No effort was made today by authorities here to analyze the stomach of the dead child brought here pending word from the Vincentown officials.

HARDING MAROONED NEAR BROWNSVILLE

Efforts of President-Elect's Party To Quit Storm Swept Point Isabel Are Without Avail

Point Isabel, Texas, Nov. 14.—Failing in an adventerous attempt to quit storm swept Point Isabel and conclude his vacation in more comfortable quarters in Brownsville, President-elect Harding returned here tonight after being marooned for four hours on an uninhabited stretch of Texas prairie and decided to postpone his moving until tomorrow.

The failure to reach Brownsville was due to a breakdown of the narrow gauge, gasoline propelled railway train on which the President-Elect and his party had started away early in the afternoon.

After being informed that automobile traffic between the places was impossible because of the storm that disrupted the party's vacation plans, they returned at 7 o'clock in the evening without having been more than two miles away from the point.

Another attempt to move into Brownsville will be made tomorrow morning, but it is uncertain whether Mr. Harding will choose the railway, or the winding, rain-soaked trail that leads into town through the monotonous expanse of cactus and mesquite. Late tonight there were some indications that possibilities of a passage by motor were improving, but the special train was held for his use if he should want it.

SEEKS TO IMPROVE ELECTION CANVASS

Accuracy Rather Than Speed Is Urged by Assistant District Attorney Talley of New York

New York, Nov. 14.—Legislation to improve methods of counting the ballots cast in general elections was urged by chief Assistant District Attorney Alfred J. Talley, in a statement here tonight commenting upon the complaints and difficulties reported by election officials in canvassing the vote this year. He declared some method should be devised of accuracy, rather than speed, to prevent the possibility of "candidates lawfully being counted out and deprived of the offices to which they have been elected by the votes of the people."

The assistant district attorney recommended that the polls be closed earlier, the ballot boxes locked and sealed and removed to the nearest police stations and kept there until the following day. He proposed appointment of responsible trained canvassers to count the vote the next day and recommended that school teachers and accountants be employed for this work.

FLOAT BLACK FLAG DEPLORING TREATY

Tense Scene Attends Ratification by National Assembly of Pact Between Hungary and Entente

Budapest, Nov. 14. — When the peace treaty between Hungary and the entente allies came up in the national assembly today, the deputie rose and sang the national anthem and then voted for ratification amid absolute silence. The Christian Nationalists, Slovak, Croats, Germans, Western Hungarians and members of the extreme left, departed from the chamber. It was ordered that the black flag of mourning should fly over the public buildings during the application of the treaty.

In an address, lamenting the crushing weight of the terms imposed, Karl Huszar, former premier, brought tears to the eyes of many of his hearers. Count Paul Teleky, the premier, proposed that he be tried for his part in negotiating and ratifying the treaty, but the deputies voted unanimously against such a step.

NATIONAL AMATEUR ATHLETES CONVENE IN NEW ORLEANS, LA.

New Orleans, La. Nov. 14. — The annual convention of the National Amateur Athletic association union opened here today with 50 delegates in attendance from all sections of the country. Today's session consisted chiefly of committee meetings. Business sessions will begin tomorrow.

The first official work of the convention was the awarding of 1921 national track and field championships to Los Angeles. Other awards for 1921 will be made at tomorrow's meeting.

CARPENTIER RESPECTS DEMPSEY

Paris, Nov. 14. — Georges Carpentier, the heavyweight champion of Europe, returned from America richer by 1,000,000 francs and with a great respect for the fighting ability of Jack Dempsey, world title holder. Carpentier, who is never boastful, even before leaving France when he had not yet seen Dempsey, said on his return that Dempsey was considered in America to be a "superfighter," but he would meet him with as much confidence as he did the British fighters, Wells and Becket, whom he knocked out.

THIEVES STEAL WHISKEY CARGO

KIDNAP POLICEMAN

Officer, at Point of Revolvers, Is Forced to Leave City on Truck Manned by Gangsters

Newark, N. J., Nov. 14. — A band of whiskey thieves believed by the police to number 25 or more, early today broke open two freight cars in the South Bend railway yards and stole 588 cases of whiskey and 44 barrels of alcohol. The whiskey is valued at $32,340, and the alcohol at $25,000.

The loot was carried off in motor trucks after a railroad policeman had been kidnapped.

The robbers had emptied two freight cars and were breaking into the third, which the police surprised them. The police feared to open fire on the robbers in the darkness, lest they might wound one another, and in the delay that followed the thieves escaped.

Two trucks filled with plunder were recovered. One contained 23 cases of whiskey and the other 22 barrels of alcohol.

The thieves apparently began work about 2:30 a. m., when five men in a touring car asked Patrolman James Gregory, of the Pennsylvania railroad, the way to Atlantic City. While one robber talked with him, the others left the car, approached him from behind and suddenly, pressing revolvers against his body, ordered him to get into the machine. They sped away, passing through Elizabeth, Springfield, Morristown and Bernardville and at 6 a. m., the car was stopped. The policeman then was blindfolded and put off the car with orders not to remove the covering from his eyes until the machine was out of hearing. He discovered he was in the town of Signac and quickly telephoned to the New Jersey Central railroad police.

About 4 a. m., an engineer on a yard engine, while backing through the South Broad street yards, saw five men tampering with a freight car and a motor truck partly loaded nearby. He stopped the locomotive and as he did so the robbers inquired "Want some whiskey?" whereupon a case of liquor was placed upon the engine. The engineer reported the incident to the police at Elizabeth and reserves were rushed to the yards. A dozen detectives also were dispatched from Jersey City police headquarters.

The robbers sought cover when surprised and dodged among the cars, pursued by the force of police detectives. In the darkness it was difficult to discern pursuer from pursued and the police withheld their fire. The thieves, meantime, fled down the railroad tracks, through the maze of cars, and escaped.

The police estimated the value of the liquor in the three freight cars at $250,000. One of the abandoned trucks was identified as the property of E. P. Johnson of Newark, who told the police it had been stolen from in front of his garage last night. The other is owned by an express company an employe of which is missing, the police say.

CLOSE ON MAIL THIEVES.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 14. — The postal department tonight is tightening the net about the thieves who last night robbed a mail car within the city limits of Council Bluff, Iowa. Ten sacks of registered mail were thrown from the car. One sack was recovered intact. Although no definite check has been made, investigators say that the loss may exceed $1,000,000.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS ASSEMBLY AT WORK

Completion of Pact Must Go Regardless of Attitude of United States, in Opinion of Members

Geneva, Switzerland, Nov. 14.—(By the Associated Press). — The League of Nations assembly will begin work here supported by the prayers of all Geneva. Special services were held in all the churches today and were largely attended by the delegation.

The leading delegations will go into the sessions with a well-defined policy and surprises can come only from the smaller states, whose delegations are expected to exercise care not to assume the responsibility of provoking a conflict.

Baron Consuke Hayashi, head of the Japanese delegation, told the Associated Press this morning there was no chance of any dangerous question being raised by Japan. He declared unfounded a report from Tokio that the delegates had prepared compositions on racial equalities. "It is useless," he said, "to introduce such a sensational matter to the assembly. There is nothing to it."

The council of the league decided this afternoon to leave a place open on the financial commission for a representative of the United States, in case it is decided later by Washington to accept a place on it.

The delegates are very modest in their forecast of the work of the assembly, generally saying it cannot be expected that anything will be accomplished that will make a brilliant showing to the general public, as only after a lapse of considerable time can the effects of deliberations be felt. They hope, however, to fix definitely a system of disarmament and decide upon the organization of an economic blockade so as to make it an effective arm against aggressive nations.

The attitude toward the United States is that the League of Nations must go on whether the United States comes in or not, but that it must be developed in a way that must not close the door for entry when means are found to make that possible.

MILITANT WARNS IRISH VOLUNTEERS

Arrest Is Threatened Unless Associations With Republican Army Cease Immediately

Dublin, Ireland, Nov. 14. — The military today raided about 50 dwelling houses of Irish volunteers, notified the occupants that the authorities had full particulars of their association with the Republican army and intimated that they would be arrested unless they ceased association with that body.

The weekly summary of events published by the Irish constabulary in the current issue, declared that the indisputable source of all crimes in Ireland is "an organized gang of assassins describing itself as the Irish Republican army.

"This gang of assassins," continues the statement, "must be stamped out at any cost, but for the unhappy people of Ireland, the victims of this appalling scourge, every consideration must be shown. The Royal Irish constabulary must put out the murder gang. It is war to the death."

HOSPITALS OVERCROWDED

State Institutions For Insane Now House Inmates 18 Percent Above Capacity.

Albany, Nov. 14.—New York state's 13 hospitals for insane are overcrowded to 18 percent above their normal capacity, it was stated in the annual report of the State Charities Aid association, issued here today. Institutions built to accommodate 20,324 persons now contain 23,845, and congestion, brought about by the entrance of patients who must be admitted is causing a serious situation, especially in hospitals in and near New York city, the report added.

These conditions are expected to be remedied through new construction provided for in state appropriations totalling $5,600,000.

HONOR GUARDSMEN WHO FELL ON FRANCE'S BATTLEFIELDS

New York, Nov. 14.—Members of the New York National Guard, who fell in the war, were honored today with memorial services in Central park and a parade in Fifth avenue of a provisional detachment of 1,700 New York troops, composed of infantry, cavalry and artillery.

Thousands lined the sidewalks as the column passed in review before Major General Charles Summerall, commanding the first division, United States army, and Major General John F. O'Ryan, former commander of the 27th division.

LAKE STEAMER WRECKED.

Sault St. Marie, Mich., Nov. 14.—The Becker line steamer, Francis J. Widiar, is wrecked on Pancake shoals, 10 miles northeast of White Fish bay and Captain Arthur Forbes of Ashtabula, O., in command of the vessel, has been taken aboard the steamer Livingston, due to reach here tomorrow afternoon, according to a wireless message from Captain Forbes to the Canadian Soo wireless station late tonight.

WRANGEL ARMY BADLY BEATEN

Several Generals Under Anti Bolsheviki Leader Commit Suicide When Rout Becomes General

RED CROSS LOOTED

Mob in Sebastopol Pillages Stores of American Relief Organization As Evacuation Begins

Constantinople, Turkey, Nov. 14 — (By The Associated Press)—The army of General Wrangel, the anti-bolsheviki leader, in South Russia, has been wiped out and a number of his generals have committed suicide.

A mob in Sebastopol has pillaged the American Red Cross stock.

The American torpedo boat destroyers at Sebastopol are evacuating officers and their families. The American destroyer Humphreys has gone to Yalta to take on the Red Cross supplies.

The United States transport Farady has arrived here with 800 sick and wounded, who were cared for by the American Red Cross. It is said that the Reds were joined by some Ukranians in spreading terror among the populace in the Crimea.

Now Retreating Southward.

Paris, Nov. 14. — (By the Associated Press). — General Wrangel's army, thoroughly beaten, is continuing to retreat southward, according to information received by the French foreign office today, pursued by a well commanded Bolshevik army of 27 divisions. General Wrangel has suffered great losses and many of his officers have been killed. The foreign office today confirmed the hopelessness of General Wrangel's military situation. The evacuation of Sebastopol by civilians and foreigners is under way, according to foreign office advices, but the members of General Wrangel's government were still in Sebastopol last night, although the Bolsheviki were reported to be occupying Simferpol and capturing many prisoners and large quantities of materials.

Information reaching the foreign office says "the Bolsheviki did not storm the Perekop lines, but by an enveloping movement of their left wing invaded the Crimea."

Plan for Evacuation.

Constantinople, Turkey, Nov. 14. — Premier Kriogochin of General Wrangel's government arrived here today to arrange for the transport of women, children and wounded from the Crimea. He said the possibilities of a general evacuation of the Crimea could not be excluded and that everything was being done to save the remnants of General Wrangel's army. "Evacuation will be extremely difficult," Premier Kriogochin declared, "but we have opened pourparlers to establish conditions regarding evacuation."

Troops in Confusion.

Constantinople, Turkey, Nov. 14.—(The Associated Press). — The resistance of General Wrangel's army in the Crimea has been broken and his troops are fleeing in utter confusion, after fighting heroically on the lines about Perekop. Headquarters here of General Wrangel confirm reports that his "white" army cannot hold the Crimea.

Report Sebastopol Captured.

London, Nov. 14. — Reuter's Paris correspondent says today "it is reported that the Bolsheviki captured Sebastopol Saturday night."

Yalta Is Taken.

Constantinople, Nov. 14.—The Bolsheviki have taken both Yalta and Eupatoria, and their cavalry is approaching Sebastopol, according to the latest advices received here.

Eupatoria is about midway down the western coast of the Crimean peninsula, while Yalta is situated only a short distance from the southeastern point of the peninsula.

Reds Mass for Attack.

Constantinople, Turkey, Nov. 14.—(By the Associated Press). — The Reds broke through the defense of General Wrangel on the Isthmus of Perekop, according to best reports obtainable here, by concentrating 20 divisions against three divisions of the White army. Wrangel's men, although greatly outnumbered, withstood 22 assaults before Perekop, but were finally beaten. The commanders of most of Wrangel's units were killed.

The success of the Bolsheviki is attributed largely to the excellence of its high command, which is said to be directed by a foreigner.

The evacuation of the Crimea, which began Thursday, is continuing under great difficulties. It is a problem how the refugees can be cared for in Constantinople, as this city already is overpopulated.

Mutinies Caused Defeat.

Sebastopol, Nov. 14. — Mutinies in General Wrangel's army brought about his sudden defeat, it was learned here today. The French warship, Waldeck Rousseau, is in port, ready to embark General Wrangel, who is here.

Perekop Fighting Fierce.

Constantinople, Turkey, Nov. 14.—(By the Associated Press). — The fighting at Perekop was of the most desperate character.

The Bolsheviki, according to latest advices, admit they had 50,000 men killed. They claim to have taken 40,000 prisoners. They won their success largely to the use of poison gas. It is stated that, at the request of the French representative attached to Wrangel's headquarters, the Bolsheviki had granted a truce for evacuation of the Crimea.

Blockade Black Sea Coast.

London, Nov. 14. — A blockade of the Russian Black Sea coast has been declared, according to the Constantinople correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company. British destroyers have begun patrolling the sea to prevent the Bolsheviki from communicating with the Turkish coast.

Demand Wrangel's Surrender.

London, Nov. 14.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph says today that a dispatch from Berlin announces that according to an official Moscow wireless message the commander of the Bolsheviki army on the southern front has sent a demand to General Wrangel for his immediate surrender, promising amnesty to General Wrangel and his troops.

SEND PHOTOGRAPHS OVER WIRE SYSTEM

Views Are Successfully Transmitted Between New York and St. Louis in Initial Attempt

New York, Nov. 14. — The New York World tonight announced the successful transmission today of four photographs by wire between its office here and the office of the St. Louis Post Dispatch.

Two photographs, one of the Yale-Princeton football game and the other an airplane view of New York city were sent from New York to St. Louis, and a picture of an Indian chief and one of the Mississippi river steamboats was sent from St. Louis to the World office [illegible] for retransmission for the picture was eight minutes.

In the method successfully tested today the photographs to be sent by wire were placed on a cylinder over which passed a needle attached to a sending instrument. The variations of the needle, transmitted by wire, were reproduced in the receiving instrument which vibrated a film positive. The ray of light reflected from the mirror passed through a photo screen graduated from capacity to transparency, allowing the light to pass in varying degrees of intensity upon a sensitized plate.

GASOLINE PRICES CUT BY STANDARD

Nine States Benefit by Reduction as a Movement to Aid in Commercial Readjustment.

New York, Nov. 14. — Tank wagon prices of gasoline will be reduced one cent a gallon tomorrow in states in which the Standard Oil company of New Jersey and the Standard Oil company of Louisiana operate, it was announced here tonight by Walter C. Teagle, president of the New Jersey company.

States in which the reduction will be effective include New Jersey, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and District of Columbia, in which the Standard Oil company of New Jersey operates, and in Louisiana, Tennessee and Arkansas, in which the Louisiana company operates.

The reduction in price is not the result of lower cost of crude oil or labor, Mr. Teagle said, but is a movement on the part of the company to aid in lowering the prices as a part of the general commercial readjustment.

KING'S MARRIAGE LEGAL

Opposition of Former King Constantine to Madam Manos' Claims Are Dismissed.

Athens, Nov. 14. — The late King Alexander's marriage with Aspia Manos was declared valid by the court here today, which dismissed the opposition of former King Constantine and ordered the seals on the apartment of the late monarch broken.

Madam Manos will inherit Alexander's personal property.

Madam Manos' attorney recently asked the court to remove the seals from the apartments of the late King Alexander, claiming she legally was entitled to inherit his property. A lawyer acting for former King Constantine asked the court to suspend action until he had time to institute opposition. He declared Constantine intended to contend that the marriage of the late monarch and Madam Manos was invalid.

CLOSE COOPERAGE FACTORY.

Councilor Bluff, Nov. 14. — The mills of the Brooklyn Cooperage company, a branch of the American sugar refinery here, were closed indefinitely last night. Unsettled conditions precipitated the shut down, according to Manager W. N. Barron. The concern had approximately 1,000 employes, including those at the mills and others handling forestry products.

CLAIM VICTORY FOR VENIZELOS

Premier Announces Majority for His Party in Elections Held in Greece Sunday

FIGHT WAS BITTER

Demetrious Gounaris, Venizelos' Opponent, Flees Flight in Case His Defeat Is Assured

Athens, Greece, Nov. 14. — Premier Venizelos announces that his party has won a majority in the elections throughout Greece.

Athens, Greece, Nov. 14. — By The Associated Press. — General elections were held throughout Greece today and on the outcome is expected to hinge the question of whether former King Constantine shall come back to the throne again or remain in exile in Switzerland.

Demetrios Gounaris, former premier and leader of the opposition, who was the opponent of Premier Venizelos in the balloting, was a candidate of the elements desiring the return of Constantine. Mr. Venizelos on the other hand, is unalterably opposed to the return of the fallen monarch.

Bitter Campaign Waged.

A bitter campaign has been waged by both sides and no matter which side carries the elections trouble is feared. Claims of certain victory were made by both Venizelists and the Royalists, with indications that M. Venizelos would pull a big majority in the new provinces of Macedonia and Thrace and the Islands, but the old Greece would witness a fierce struggle.

Gounaris made preparations for quick flight in case the elections went against him, having requested passports to Italy on Friday last. Exiled during the war on the charge of high treason, he was permitted through the approval of Venizelos to return to take part in the campaign. But should he fail of election his parliamentary immunity would expire immediately. In case Premier Venizelos is successful, he will be given a free hand in the selection of the new head of the state, Prince Paul who was offered the throne on the death of the late King Alexander not having formally accepted the government's invitation to return from Switzerland and rule Greece.

Outside Vote Heavy.

The result of the election will not be known until Monday night, as there is the army vote in Syrna and other distant points to be taken in consideration. It is expected that the soldiers will support Venizelos. Summing up the forecast brought to him at his modest home next door to the American legation, the premier said confidentially:

"The vote will show the definite determination of the people to realize their destiny and hold their place as a civilizing factor in the near east."

The general elections in Greece are of unusual importance as involving a test of strength between the existing Venizelos regime and that of former King Constantine; also in determining the succession to the Greek throne and possibly the foreshadowing an issue as between a republic and monarchy. The elections are the first held in Greece since December, 1915, prior to the entry of Greece into the world war.

Premier Venizelos has held a strong majority in parliament since the abdication of Constantine. The old Royalist element favorable to Constantine has maintained its organization, however, and has recently been reinforced by the return of Demetrios Gounaris, premier under the Constantine regime.

SNOW FORECASTED FOR MANY STATES

Storm Predicted for Middlewest Tomorrow, Is Not Expected To Reach East Before Thursday

Washington, Nov. 14. — Snow—the first of the season in a number of states was forecast by the weather bureau tonight for the eastern half of the country north of the Potomac and Ohio rivers. The bureau also saw no relief from the cold spell which has enveloped that part of the country west of the Mississippi.

The fall of snow which was forecast for the middle west tomorrow and for the east Thursday, will be light the bureau said, and in some states will amount only to flurries, but it will be snow.

Temperatures now reported the lowest of the fall in the east, probably will be lower tomorrow in the Great Lakes, the lower Ohio and central Mississippi valley regions and Tuesday in the eastern and southeastern states, the forecaster said.

WOODEN BARGE SINKS.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 14.—The wooden barge, John Eddy, in tow of the tug Custodian sprung a leak off Middle Sister Island in Lake Erie last night and sank. The crew of seven, one of them a woman, was taken off the barge by the Custodian.

IMMIGRANTS FIX DESTINATION

Authorities Lack Power to Direct Newcomers, Says Commissioner of Immigration.

New York.—Requests from all parts of the United States that the great westward tide of immigrants be diverted from the fastly-growing cities to rural districts to populate abandoned farms have led Commissioner of Immigration Wallis to reply that immigration authorities lack this power.

Immigrants, he said, plan their destination before leaving their home countries.

Delegations from different states have called at Ellis island to urge that steps be taken to prevent immigrants from going to certain cities.

Representatives of the chamber of commerce of Detroit, which new census figures advanced from the ninth to the fourth largest city in the country, asked that immigrants be sent to northern Michigan. Present labor conditions in Detroit are not such as to warrant an influx of foreign labor, they declared, as many Maltese, barred from entering Canada by a recent order, have located in Detroit.

The Circus.

The clowns disport themselves as of yore. The band plays its tuneful music. Acrobats swing high on shining trapezes. The elephants go through their ponderous moves. The seals flap their way to children's hearts. All is the same as twenty years ago—the circus does not change.

But with the passing of the years, the effect has changed. The trappings seem less bright. Their tawdry tinsel no longer seems pure gold. The quaintness of exotic cloaks no longer transports the mind to faraway lands. The acrobats seem much the same as those the daily stage brings us. The elephants, for all their heavy training, seem but commonplace. Even the clowns seem less funny than in days gone by. Time has passed, indeed.

The circus does not change. But we, feeling the heavy hand of passing time, have changed. No longer do we feel as children. Through the glamor, we see the sadness. Forsooth, since our childhood days, we have progressed.—Milwaukee Journal.

Must Have Some Human Qualities.

We must have a weak spot or two in a character before we can love it much. People that do not laugh or cry or take more of anything than is good for them, or use anything but dictionary words are admirable subjects for biographers.—O. W. Holmes.

LOSSES WERE MANY IN WEEK'S TRADING

Low Records in a Wide Variety of Stocks, for a Period of One to Three Years, Resulted.

New York, Nov. 14. — Additional downward revision of values in the securities market last week accompanied the further levelling of prices in the commodities markets. Losses of five to almost 25 points in a wide variety of stocks established low records for a period of one to three years.

The same reasons of a general economic character, which proved effective during the preceding fortnight, were again operative. Chief among these were the tense credit situation, further dimunition of production in almost every branch of manufacture and collapse of foreign exchange.

Heavy accessions to the country's unprecedented holdings and return to this market of vast sums released from crop moving centers, failed to bring any relief to the strained monetary situation, save for temporary easement of demand loans.

In the steel and iron trade, and more particularly in the textile and kindred industries, the reversal made greater progress with consequent reduction of wage schedules, contracted payrolls and increased unemployment, several of the leading railway systems announcing further laying off of employes.

The break in international remittances comprehended particularly every financial center of importance on the eastern hemisphere, excepting the British Isles. It extended to South and Central America, where serious trade dislocations threatened the enforced rejection of extensive obligations with business interests of this country.

The note of qualified optimism sounded by the federal reserve board respecting future conditions, was shared by conservative banking interests, which, however, stressed the importance of limiting credits to essential projects.

For the first time since the early autumn no new capital issues were announced and the trend of the bond market suggested that latest events had prompted increased caution on the part of the investors.

Natural Wonders.

When waters charged with carbonate of calcium derived from limestone are evaporated they deposit masses of the carbonate, some of which are of great beauty. This process can be observed at many warm and "petrifying" springs and also in limestone caverns were stalactites and stalagmites are being formed, according to the United States geological survey. Mexican "onyx" is formed in this way. Its variations in color and texture, which make it attractive and valuable as an ornament, are commonly produced by impurities or inclusions, such as oxide of iron, or even mud and clay.

The original all-record phonograph without attachments

SUCH is The Brunswick, and part of its fame is due to this great innovation.

Until the coming of this noted instrument, most phonograph owners had to be content with a one-record instrument. Brunswick made this idea out of date.

There have been many attempts to equal The Brunswick, but devices and attachments never bring the desired result.

The Ultona is part of The Brunswick, in-built. And it plays every record at its best.

Another exclusive feature is the Brunswick Tone Amplifier, built entirely of wood. It has no cast-metal throat, as is usual.

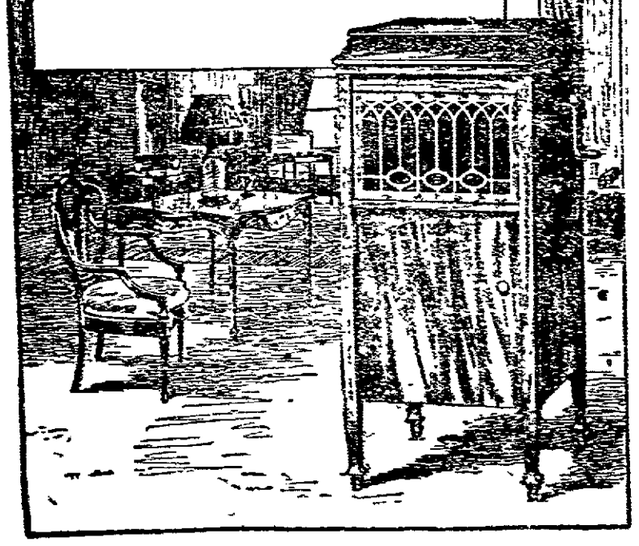

Brunswick
PHONOGRAPHS AND RECORDS

This scientific tone amplifier, built according to acoustic laws, gives truer, richer tone. It reveals hitherto lost shadings.

Hear The Brunswick before you buy a phonograph. Note its unequaled tone, its superb cabinet work, its many betterments.

You will hardly believe all the good things they say about The Brunswick until you, yourself, hear it. Come in today.

DELAWARE COUNTY NEWS

PARADE IN COOPERSTOWN.

Cooperstown, Nov. 14. — Cooperstown did not let Armistice Day pass unheralded Thursday and the observance brought many memories of the great occasion two years ago when news first came to Cooperstown that the great war in which many of the village's sons made the supreme sacrifice, had come to an end.

At 11 o'clock in the morning, the church bells and whistles of the village were sounded for a few minutes and other noise-making devices were brought into play. The principal event of the day, however, came in the evening, when there was a big parade through the streets of the village, in which many civic organizations participated. The Cooperstown platoon of Company G, the local American Legion post, the business men, and the girls at the Knox school joined in the parade, which reached large proportions by the time it had got under way.

After the parade, many of the marchers adjourned to the American Legion restaurant, where they enjoyed an informal banquet and speechmaking until a late hour.

Newlyweds Begin Housekeeping.

Mr. and Mrs. William Walter Peterson have returned from their honeymoon and have begun housekeeping in a flat in the Edgett building on Main street. Mrs. Peterson was Albertine Raubacher and the couple were married about two weeks ago. Mr. Peterson is a clerk in Church & Scott's pharmacy.

Civil War Veteran Dead.

Frank Price, a Civil War veteran, died Thursday at his home on Walnut street of pneumonia, after a brief illness, although his poor health of several weeks past contributed measurably to the death. Practically his whole life had been spent in Otsego county. He came to Cooperstown from Middlefield a number of years ago and remained here until his health became poor, when he went to live with his son in Schenectady. About a year ago, he returned from Schenectady and made his home with his wife on Walnut street. Besides his wife, who was Anna Marks of Sprout Brook, Mr. Price is survived by the son in Schenectady and by one daughter, Mrs. Ira Haner. Mr. Price was a member of the L. C. Turner Post, G. A. R., and a man about 75 years of age. His numerous Cooperstown friends learn with regret of his passing.

Death of Mrs. Harriett Davenport.

The death of Mrs. Harriett A. Davenport, a native of Milford, occurred at her home at Oaksville last Sunday. Mrs. Davenport was born at Milford in 1847, but for several years had resided at Schuyler Lake and vicinity. She is survived by three children: Mrs. Grace Roberts of Oaksville; Jesse Davenport of Minneapolis, Minn., and Willard Davenport of Ilion, and two sisters, Mrs. T. P. Gano of Westville and Mrs. F. A. Beemer of Tacoma, Wash. The funeral services were held at her late home on Wednesday afternoon at 1 p. m., Rev. Charles Kramer of Cooperstown officiating. Interment was in the Schuyler Lake cemetery.

Trapping Season Opens.

REDUCTION OF PRICES.

In Oneonta, as elsewhere, there is gratifying indication that many articles bought and sold are coming down appreciably in price, and that perhaps before the years end the selling prices along numerous lines will be materially lower than have for the past two or more years been maintained. Perhaps sugar was the thing until within a few days in which reduction was notable, chiefly perhaps because it was a product of general demand; but now cotton goods are running a close second in way of reduction, and leather and woolen goods and flour have also made appreciable declines, while, so bountiful has been the harvest, there are scarcely any fall and winter fruits and vegetables which are not available at reasonable figures.

These things are very satisfactory, and it is hoped that other articles of general use will follow the lines of reduction above noted. Among these are coal and petroleum products, the prices of which have had much to do in keeping the cost of living at a high notch, since their consumption enters into the cost of practically every manufactured product, in the furnishing of power, the supply of gas and electric lights, steam for locomotive use in transportation and in the heating of the home. The high price of none of these can be laid to the doors of the local dealers, and yet they enter as factors into the high cost of practically everything. Until, therefore, the mining companies provide coal, and the oil companies oil, at prices much below what they are now demanding, there are many things which will not go down to the figure which to most of use would seem reasonable.

EXPLOSION THEORIES

After several weeks of speculation, and apparently with no theories at all workable, there has come forward the suggestion that the Wall street explosion was an incident merely of a labor war and that it was an attempt to terrorize workmen employed in clearing the ground for the annex to the New York stock exchange. There is a degree of plausibility about the new theory which in the absence of anything else at all workable will attract attention, but as yet there is nothing which would confirm it. However, for the first time an inteligible motive for the crime, if in fact it was a crime, has been suggested. Hitherto the explosion had seemed so irrational as to suggest that it either must have been an accident or a lunatic. As to an incident of a factional labor war, it might be at least understandable.

However, there seems to be nothing as yet to confirm the latest theory of the explosion, and in fact it is so far from any confirmation whatever, that there is no reason to believe it true.

With the Presbyterian Men.

The 1920-21 session of the Men's Parliament of the First Presbyterian church started off very auspiciously yesterday morning, about 30 men of the church remaining after the close of the morning service to participate in the discussion of "The Background of the Apostolic Church." Dr. Russell gave a talk outlining the early beginning and subsequent growth of the church, and despite the many difficulties that were encountered. Much interest was manifested by the men in the discussion, and some profitable forums are in store for them this winter. Next weeks subject will be "The Origin of the Christian Community."

It was announced yesterday that that first meeting for this season of the Men's club of the church would take place next Friday evening in the church parlors. As the first meeting always takes the form of a reception, the ladies of the congregation are invited to be present. There will be a speaker and a social hour, followed by refreshments.

Supplies for the Blandon School.

All interested in the Blandon school for Negro children at Baton Rouge, La., are requested to send clothing, shoes, sewing materials toys, in fact anything that can be used in such a school, or amongst the needy homes of the pupils to the residence of C. J. Westcott, 40 Elm street, during the present week, so that barrels may be started at once.

Miss Knowles and Miss Snell, who have charge there are graduates of our own Oneonta Normal, and are doing a good work. They say the cannot get along without the boxes and barrels from the north. Lots over your stores and send as liberally as possible.

Takes a Little Vacation at Home.

Robert Hackett, who took a French leave from the Delhi jail on Tuesday evening last, was found at his home on Thursday and is back again serving the balance of his five months sentence. Hackett states that after all the other prisoners were let out at the close of the recent term of court, being either discharged, paroled or sent to prison, he figured so nobody that he could not stand it any longer and as he was a trusty, his escape was easy.

RED CROSS APPEALS TODAY

FOURTH ROLL CALL STARTS IN ONEONTA THIS MORNING.

More Than Hundred Workers to Canvass City in Behalf of Great Humanitarian Organization — Red Cross Sunday Observed Yesterday in the Churches of City.

More than a hundred representative Oneonta women will commence a house-to-house canvass of the city this morning in an effort to enroll every one as a member of the American Red Cross. The campaign will not be stopped until every possible effort has been made to increase the membership of the local chapter to equally over that of last year.

Yesterday was observed in churches of all denominations throughout the country as Red Cross Sunday, and Oneonta pastors cooperated with the others in calling to the attention of their congregations the appeal of "the greatest mother in the world." They referred to the fact that the Citizen always has been a loyal supporter of the suffering and the Red Cross, through its ministrations to the needy and victims of disaster, is doing the highest type of Christian work and deserves the support of every man. Prayers for the success of the Red Cross movement this week also were offered by the clergymen.

The local Red Cross has adopted a new plan for canvassing the city in this present campaign. Instead of dividing the city into districts with a captain at the head of each, as has been the custom in years past, each of the workers has been assigned a certain territory to cover and will report direct to the headquarters in the federal building. Many of the women canvassers met at headquarters Saturday to receive final instructions and were given blanks which they will use in receiving memberships. All other women who have promised to assist with the roll call, but who have not yet received their supplies, are requested to call at the Home Service room at the post office today afternoon or tomorrow afternoon. This is important in order that work may begin in all sections of the city as nearly as possible at the same time.

It is hoped, and believed, that the canvassers will be received gladly by the citizens of Oneonta. It costs but one dollar to become a member of the Red Cross, and it should be a satisfaction to everyone to feel himself a member of an organization that played such a great part during the world war and which is "still the greatest mother in the world." Lawrence T. Ingram, chairman of the Roll Call campaign, said yesterday that the principal object of the canvass was not to raise funds but to get everyone interested in the Red Cross.

"It is just the members of a big club renewing their membership for another year," declared Mr. Ingram, "and is not a 'drive' as that word is commonly used. People need not think that the Red Cross is supported solely by charity; it plans to be of service to the whole community and give value received for what it gets. We expect in the near future to have enough articles of clothing and other supplies on hand to provide for a great number of people should any sort of a calamity befall Oneonta. A disaster like the Wall street explosion is not confined solely to New York, it might happen any other place, even in Oneonta. It is the aim of the Red Cross to be prepared for any such emergency and to be a real asset to the city of Oneonta."

Rev. W. D. Cavert Receives Call.

Local church-goers will be interested in the announcement that Rev. Walter D. Cavert, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Stamford, has received a unanimous call to the pastorate of the North Presbyterian church in Elmira. Mr. Cavert occupied the pulpit of the local First Presbyterian church at one of the Sunday morning services during Dr. Russell's absence last month and made a very favorable impression upon his hearers. He is well qualified both by education and experience to fill any pastoral position and his Stamford congregation is anxiously awaiting his decision, which if it is to leave Stamford will be received with the greatest regret.

"Y" State League Bowlers.

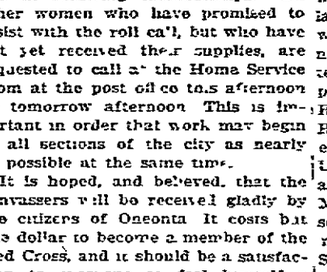

For the first time in several years the Oneonta Y. M. C. A. will this winter have a team entered in the state bowling tournament. The first practice roll-off was held at the "Y" last week and resulted as follows:

Captain M. V. Beckwith, 147, 144, 155, A. L. Shaw, 174, 179, 192, J. Miles Green, 209, 171, 158, Dewey Thomas, 136, 150, 219, S. E. McKean, 187, 178, 191.

The next league game will be rolled on the "Y" alleys on November 2.

JUDGE KELLOGG IN DELAWARE.

"Wheels of Justice Have Moved Very Smoothly but Very Rapidly."

The press of Delaware county generally unites in commending the administration of justice as carried out by Justice A. L. Kellogg of this city, who last week closed a term of supreme court at Delhi. The Stamford Mirror-Recorder, referring to the numerous cases disposed of by the judge, adds the following complimentary paragraphs.

"Judge Kellogg has disposed of an unprecedented number of cases in a remarkably short time and has succeeded in getting rapid action on the part of attorneys who are naturally inclined to delay, without any friction. He has been very courteous to attorneys, extremely fair in his rulings and has kept everybody in a happy mood. This term of court will undoubtedly go down in history as one where the wheels of justice have moved very swiftly but very rapidly.

"In disposing of the persons indicted, of whom there were about a dozen arraigned, Judge Kellogg showed excellent judgment, sending only one man, who seemed to be incorrigible, to Elmira reformatory and suspending sentence on the others who pleaded guilty, even though the crime for which they were indicted was quite serious. He believes that the greatest prevention of crime is to put a man on his honor and stated that he had paroled about 60 and not one had ever gone back on his parole.

"This met with commendation from the public, who concur with Judge Kellogg's opinion that states prison makes more criminals than it ever breaks."

Elders Meet at Davenport.

Although the attendance was not large at the annual convention of the Elders' association of the Delaware presbytery, which took place last Friday at Davenport, the sessions, which were held in both the afternoon and evening, proved of much interest to the churchmen who were present. Rev. Frank M. Caughey, Robert Hall, W. E. Hastings, LeRoy Russell and Taylor Adair were present as representatives of the local United Presbyterian church, which is a part of the Delaware presbytery, and Mr. Hall gave a talk at the evening session explained the New World movement. Rev. H. A. Armitage of South Kortright also gave an address in the evening.

CHILDREN'S BOOK WEEK

Oneonta Public Library Will Observe Date of General Importance—Many New Books in Addition to Special Exhibit.

This week will be observed throughout the country as Children's Book Week.

For several years public libraries have been making an effort of worthwhile books in the month of November to help in the selection of books for gifts to the children at the holiday season.

Last year the Children's Book Week as a national campaign was organized on the initiative of the American Booksellers' association and associated publishers, with the American Library association co-operating, and the success of the week in 1919 has caused a demand for its repetition. The week will be an annual affair.

To the question "What is Children's Book Week?" the answer might be given—A joint effort to encourage the love of books among children and the discussion of children's reading in our communities.

There will be, as in the past four years, an especially attractive exhibit of children's books at the public library all during the week, in the large assembly room on the second floor. All are invited to come and enjoy it, and to help by their friendly interest and co-operation.

Some time ago the state library gave to this library about 250 books as its quota from the unused supply of soldiers' and sailors' books. They have just been received and have been placed temporarily in the case in the lower hall so that the public can see them as a whole before they are scattered according to their classes. It is a diversified collection of nonfiction, with attractive titles for various sorts of readers. Helpful books in business and the trades predominate.

Attended Tuberculosis Conference.

Miss Nina V. Short, executive secretary for Otsego county, was in attendance on Friday at the Onondaga hotel in Syracuse at a Christmas seal conference, at which were present representatives of Onondaga, Otsego, Madison, Cayuga, Seneca and Jefferson counties. The meeting was in charge of Harvey Dee Brown and Mrs. Otto R. Eichel of the State Charities Aid association. Valuable suggestions and assistance was given at the conference by Arthur W. Jones jr., secretary of the St. Louis Tuberculosis association. Those in attendance were luncheon guests of the Syracuse Rotary club at the Onondaga, at which 300 Rotarians were present and endorsed the Christmas seal enterprise.

ESSEX AND HUDSON NEW HOME.

Wilber-Bailey Company Leases Building at 52-57 Market Street.

The Wilber-Bailey company, agents for the Hudson and Essex cars, have leased the building at 52-57 Market street recently vacated by the Oneonta Ford Sales company, of George B. Baird, the owner, for a term of years. The interior of the two stores is being rearranged with a new office, stock room and a repair shop for a service station and when completed the offices and show room of the company will be removed to the new location. It is hoped by Mr. Bailey that they can take possession about Dec. 1.

The new quarters are in an excellent location and admirably adapted to the business, and the concern, which has for some time been seeking a suitable and permanent location, is well pleased with them. The Essex and Hudson are increasing in popularity and with this improvement in location and service its patrons will find many benefits accruing.

ONEONTANS DO NOT FORGET

HONOR MEMORY OF WAR DEAD AT UNION MEMORIAL SERVICES LAST EVENING.

Large Audience Hears Dr. Russell's Eulogy Prayer Offered for Continuance of Spirit That Led Oneonta Young Men to Make the Supreme Sacrifice—Adon Brownell, "Oneonta Boy," Gives Enthusiastic Talk on Young People and the Church.

The First Presbyterian church auditorium which has the largest seating capacity of any church in the city, was filled last evening, when union memorial services in honor of the American soldiers and sailors who gave their lives during the World War were held in compliance with a proclamation recently issued by President Wilson. The reverent attitude of the large congregation indicated that the memories of the sacrifices made by many Oneonta young men still linger, and that times does not eradicate the tinge of sadness noticeable in the face of many a mother or father. A delegation of American Legion men attended the service in a body, and numerous other ex-soldiers were scattered throughout the audience.

The service was opened at 7:30 o'clock with an invocation offered by Rev. P. M. Luther, following which Rev. Frank M. Caughey, of the United Presbyterian church, gave a scripture reading from Psalms. Dr. Russell then announced the purpose of the service, to honor of the memory of our soldier dead, and delivered a brief but nevertheless heartfelt eulogy of "Flanders Fields."

"On Armistice Day," he said, "England and France each gave the highest honors of the nation to the body of an unknown soldier, representing all those who gave their lives in the war, and laid it tenderly at rest with the ashes of the immortals. We, in a more quiet way, are rendering our tribute to the American 'unknown soldier' and will ever hold in grateful remembrance the sacrifices freely given by our young men during the world war."

Dr. Russell then called for a brief period of silence, out of respect to the nation's dead heroes, and this was followed by a prayer offered by Dr. E. J. Farley, which also included reference to Memorial Sunday.

Dr. Pendleton next introduced the speaker of the evening, Adon Brownell of Pittsburgh, son of Dr. A. H. Brownell of this city as "an Oneonta boy and one of its best." Mr. Brownell held the large gathering for half an hour, with scarcely a pause, so much enthusiasm and "vim" did he put into his address, which referred to the part young people should play in church work. Adon spent his boyhood days in Oneonta, and left in young manhood to enter the hardware business. He is now engaged with a prominent firm in Pittsburgh but despite his numerous business activities finds much time to devote to church work among young people. In the comparatively brief space of time in which he has been engaged in Christian Endeavor work, he has had offices in local and county Pennsylvania societies, and now is vice president of the state organization, a position which takes him all over the state in the interests of the Christian Endeavor.

Although prefacing his remarks with an "apology" relative to his public speaking, Adon needed none, for he spoke in a straight-from-the-shoulder style and with great energy. Scattered throughout the congregation were a large number of Oneonta young people's workers, and it was to them that the address proved of especial interest. The speaker devoted most of his talk to the importance of getting young people interested in church work and told of various schemes which had been worked out successfully in Pennsylvania. Ado's [illegible] friends were gratified at the opportunity to hear him speak from the platform of the church where he got his first Christian education, and he impressed all his hearers as a young man of excellent determination and of the right type. He leaves Oneonta this morning for Wilkes-Barre, to attend a [illegible] meeting of the Pennsylvania Christian Endeavor union, and will return later in the week to Pittsburgh.

Appropriate [illegible] for the evening were rendered by the [illegible] quartet [illegible] of S. [illegible] A. C. Lange, Miss Josephine Lauren and Mrs. [illegible] Calhoun, with Miss Daggett as organist.

PAGEANT AT CHURCH SERVICE.

Unique Production at United Presbyterian Church Yesterday Morning.

A pretty and well-acted pageant entitled "Out of the Darkness into Light" was the feature of a thank offering service held yesterday morning at the United Presbyterian church. Young ladies and children of the Sunday school had spent much time in rehearsing the pageant and when it was given yesterday it had all the [illegible] qualities that make this type of drama both entertaining and instructive. The theme brought out how the light of the gospel of Christ had released the world from the darkness of sin and given new life to man. Especially noteworthy were the parts played by Miss Lura Pierce in "Watchman, What of the Night?" and Miss Susan Birdsall in "Offerings of Gratitude for the Light." Everyone who took part in the pageant acted her part creditably, and it must have been a source of much satisfaction to those who had charge of the production, to witness the fine manner in which it was carried out.

There was an unusually large congregation present at the service yesterday morning, and all were well pleased with the pageant. The total of the thank offering, which goes to the Women's General Missionary society at Pittsburgh, was announced as follows: Juniors, $12.15, young ladies, $25.96; Women's Missionary society, $95.78, making a total of $133.89 to be sent to missions, which is indeed very gratifying.

D. & H. TRAINMAN INJURED.

Hamilton King of Binghamton at Fox Hospital With Fractured Skull.

Hamilton King, a D. & H. trainman residing at 140 Laurel avenue, Binghamton, was brought to the Fox Memorial hospital Sunday morning, suffering from a fractured skull sustained while at work in the Delanson yard at about 6 o'clock that morning. He was attended by Dr. Arthur W. Cutler, the company surgeon, who found that he had a bad fracture of the frontal bone. The broken parts of the skull were removed and while his injuries are serious, he has a fair chance of recovery unless meningitis or a kindred ailment develops.

No explanation of the manner in which King sustained his injuries can be secured, the train crew being unable to give any statement. It was not known that he had been out on the cars and it is surmised by some that he was hit by a projection of some sort from a passing train. He was found in the Delanson yard, it is believed, shortly after the injuries were sustained.

Mr. King is a young man and unmarried. He was employed on train 892 southbound in charge of Conductor Potter at the time of the accident. He has not been unconscious since reaching this city and his condition is considered as favorable as could be hoped for.

Stirring Addresses Sunday Afternoon by Drs. Geo. J. Dann and Geo. W. Augustin—Miss Lauren Sings and Theatre Orchestra Plays — House Donated by Management.

Red Cross Sunday opened the fourth annual roll call for Oneonta, and the day was fittingly observed by an excellent showing of special Red Cross films yesterday afternoon at the Oneonta theatre, under the auspices of the [illegible]. Fully [illegible] persons attended the [illegible] and enjoyed the motion pictures and films.

Although the Red Cross workers, under the supervision of L. T. Ingram, do not begin actual canvassing for memberships until this morning, a goodly number of memberships were received after the performance and a squadron of six women were kept busy in the foyer signing receipts and passing out the membership buttons.

Dr. George J. Dann delivered a stirring address about the American Red Cross and its peace-time program at the beginning of the exercises. He pictured the needs for funds in the work among the war-stricken countries of Europe and pointed out that the organization's activities during the war began tasks still uncompleted, making America and her prosperous people morally responsible to aid in alleviating the sufferings of women and children across the seas.

During Dr. Dann's address a picturesque tableau was enacted by a group of young women of the local Red Cross chapter and Boy Scouts. The scene depicted two nurses administering to a soldier, lying on a cot in an army hospital, while across the stage other nurses and Boy Scouts were grouped beneath the organization's banner.

Dr. George W. Augustin made another stirring appeal for support of the Red Cross, naming in detail the many ways in which the workers supplied comforts for "Oneonta's Own" from the time the boys left Oneonta, through their experiences in the trenches, and until their demobilization. He cited several fields of work for the Home Service section of the Red Cross in Oneonta, which can only be carried out with sufficient funds. Mr. Ingram presided at the meeting.

"Still the Greatest Mother of All" was the slogan expressed in action on the screen by the principal film. It showed "Service" asking "Wisdom" what she could do now that the war is over, and through his telescope she saw the numerous needs for the humane administrations of the Red Cross overseas and in the United States. Two other films illustrated by scenarios how the Red Cross can teach practical nursing and the care of the teeth to make the American people healthier and happier. A film made in Oneonta in 1918 was also shown and furnished amusement for the audience.

Miss Josephine Lauren pleased the audience with a vocal solo, accompanied by Miss Daggett. The theatre's orchestra furnished music during the performance. The building, light and heat were donated for the occasion by the theatre management.

How Will Your New Suit Look Six Months From Now?

This is an age of common sense. Choosing a suit of clothes is a practical business proposition. You look for WEAR and SERVICE in a garment as well as style and fit. This winter you want a suit that will look well next winter, too. You want an overcoat which will give you good service for several seasons.

All of these qualities you will find in Carr's suits and overcoats. The pleasure and thrill of wearing "new" clothes lasts for many months—often for years — when you buy garments sold by us.

JOHN W. SHAW DIES IN ALBANY

Well-Known and Respected Resident of Morris Expires Saturday — Had Been Postmaster and Supervisor of His Town, and for Six Years County Treasurer — For Past Year in State Comptroller's Office—Funeral Tuesday.

John W. Shaw, for practically his whole life a resident of Morris, and a leading citizen alike of town and county, died suddenly at his rooms, 22 Lancaster street, Albany, on Saturday afternoon. His body, accompanied by his wife and nephew, the latter D. J. Kilkenny of this city who went to Albany immediately on receipt of information of his death, was brought last evening to this city by the Dibble auto hearse and taken at once to Morris, where the funeral will be held at his late home Tuesday at 2 p. m. It is expected that Rev. E. E. Hutchinson, rector of Zion Protestant Episcopal church, of which he was an attendant, will officiate, and interment will be in the family plot in Hillington cemetery, where the services will be conducted by the Masonic fraternity.

Mr. Shaw, who for the past year has been employed as expert accountant in the income tax bureau of the state comptroller's office, had been in his usual health during the present autumn, and was at his desk until about 2 o'clock on Friday, at which hour, feeling somewhat indisposed, he went to his rooms Saturday morning he reported to the head of his department and asked for a week's leave of absence. This was granted and he at once made preparations for returning home. During the day he was about his rooms in his usual cheerful and happy mood, and at about three o'clock, his traveling bag being packed and overcoat and hat laid out in preparation for going to the station, he stepped into an adjoining room. About an hour later, as was indicated by his condition when found, another man, entering the room, saw h's lifeless body upon the floor. A physician was at once summoned and after examination a certificate was issued giving chronic valvular heart trouble as the cause of death. Mr. Shaw was born August 7, 1862, at Schuyler, Herkimer county, and was a son of John and Martha (Atwell) Shaw. When he was very young the family moved to Morris, and thereafter he always lived in Otsego county, and for most of the time in Morris. He graduated from the Morris High school and afterwards from the Albany Normal college, and for several years thereafter he was engaged in teaching. His health to some extent failing, he returned to Morris. He was for several years supervisor and postmaster of his town, and from 1912 to 1918 was county treasurer. After the expiration of his term he was again supervisor, but in December last resigned to accept the responsible position at Albany which for the past year he had held. He was for many years secretary and treasurer of the Morris Fair association, and to his death a member of the Hillington Masonic lodge and chapter and of the Commandery at Norwich.

Mr. Shaw was a man of unusual ability, courteous always in his relations to the public, faithful to duty and absolutely loyal to his friends, and unpretentious and unassuming but firm and very able and efficient in anything he undertook. A loving husband and son, he was no less kind as a neighbor and unwavering in his friendships; and, such was the fine quality of his spirit, he spoke ill of none. As a public officer he was absolutely correct in every detail of business, and at the time of his incumbency as county treasurer he was given credit by the state comptroller of having the most systematic and best conducted office of any in the state at that time. To his grave he takes universal love and respect; and to the bereaved wife the sympathy of all who knew him will be extended.

The surviving family of Mr. Shaw includes, besides his wife, formerly Miss Maude Coates of New Lisbon, one brother, Stanley Shaw of Bay Shore, L. I., and a sister, Mrs. George Fisher of Morris. He also leaves several nephews, among them D. J. Kilkenny and S. S. Kilkenny of Oneonta, Frank Kilkenny of Schenectady and Nelson Shaw of Morris.

Funeral of Mrs. Quackenbush.

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Rosanna Quackenbush, who died on Friday evening last at her home on the Davenport road about a mile from Emmons, were held at 1 p. m. yesterday at the undertaking parlors of Bookhout & Kark in this city. Rev. S. A. Terry officiated, reading appropriate scripture lessons and following with a brief address suited to the passing of one who for so many years had been a follower of the Master. Interment was in the family plot at the Plains cemetery, the bearers being Homer Wardwell, George Quackenbush and Messrs. Ennis and Beams.

Mr. Johnson's Condition Better.

The many friends of W. H. Johnson esq., who for some time has been ill at his rooms on Broad street, will be pleased to know that his condition of late has been steadily becoming more comfortable. He is now able to sit up longer periods both morning and afternoon and this better physical condition finds it counterpart in a more cheerful spirit.

DEATHS.

Mrs. George B. Wright.

Worcester, Nov. 14. — Mrs. George B. Wright passed away suddenly at her home on Main street Saturday morning after suffering a shock. She was born in the town of Maryland nearly 74 years ago and spent nearly her entire life as a resident of this village. In 1868, she was married to George B. Wright, who survives her. For several years her health had been declining, although she had been able to be about the home most of the time.

When but a young girl, Mrs. Wright united with the Baptist church of this place and continued to be most interested in its welfare all her life. Funeral services will be conducted at her late home Monday at 2 p. m., with her pastor, Rev. C. L. Herrick, officiating; burial in Maple Grove cemetery.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Wright is survived by two sons, Harry C. of this place and Ray of Oneonta; one daughter, Mrs. Levi G. Robbins of Hornell; three brothers, Edgar of this place, Prof. S. H. Gage of Ithaca, and Frank of Mohawk, and two sisters, Mrs. Olive Brown of Rochester and Dr. Mary Gage Day of Kingston.

COAL

The EIGHT PER CENT REGISTERED DEBENTURE GOLD COAL BONDS of the American Consumers Coal Company of Scranton, Pa., has, in addition to its clause making it obligatory on the Company the redemption of the bond in five years in gold coin, the following paragraph:

Redeemable in Coal

"The holder of said bond shall be entitled under the terms thereof, upon demand at any time during the life of said bond, at any colliery, coal breaker or coal yard of the company, wheresoever situated, to receive anthracite coal of any of the commercial sizes for the full value of the amount of the face value of said bond, or any fraction thereof; provided, however, that in case the company does not have on hand at the time and place of demand a sufficient supply of the size coal demanded, it will undertake to supply same within ten days. Delays due to strikes, embargoes, storms and causes beyond the company's control alone excepted."

The public consumers of Coal are not safe in these days to trust to luck for the securing of their ordinary requirements from the trade. For further information as to the innovation in the coal trade, it might be designated from mine to consumer. Please address the American Consumers Coal Company, Union Bank building, Scranton, Pa.

The Colonel smoked his own Pure Burley

DOWN South they still "grow their own." The Colonel wants his tobacco pure—straight from the plantation, full of Nature's own fragrance. That's "Old Warnicky"—a man's smoke—pure, good old Kentucky Burley, blended, nature-aged in the wood, the same today as it was when Abe Lincoln ran the White House.

onta, but the names of the occupants could not be learned by the correspondent.

Goodspeed was unconscious when picked up from the Macadam, and was immediately taken to the Oneonta hospital, it being feared that he had sustained severe injuries. A medical examination revealed, however, that his hurts were confined to bruises about the face and body and he probably will be able to leave the hospital within a day or two. Goodspeed did not regain consciousness until several hours after the accident and it was feared that he might have suffered internal injuries, but this is now thought improbable.

DELAWARE COUNTY NEWS

AT DELAWARE'S COUNTY SEAT.

Mrs. B. Y. Smith and T. L. Jacobs Dead — New Business Concern.

Delhi, Nov. 14. — The funeral of Mrs. Beadie Young Smith, who died at her home on Franklin street Thursday morning, was held from the First Presbyterian church Saturday at 1:30 p. m., conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. C. Robinson, with burial in Woodland cemetery. Mrs. Smith was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young and was 75 years of age. Two sisters of this village, Mrs. Jane Forrest and Miss Anna Young, are her only surviving relatives.

Death of T. Laselle Jacobs.

A telegram was received Friday morning by friends in this village announcing the death of T. Laselle Jacobs, which occurred in Englewood, N. J. Mr. Jacobs was 75 years of age and is survived by one son, James L. Jacobs, who is a son-in-law of James K. Penfield. The body arrived in Delhi Saturday evening and the funeral was held this afternoon.

New Business Concern.

The Farmers Light and Power company, distributors for the Western Electric Light and Power company, has opened in the office formerly occupied by Daniel Franklin. Guy T. Parsons of Camillus has taken a position with the company as salesman and Miss Wilma Bramley will be the stenographer.

Local Items.

Mrs. Grant Robinson left the past week for Port Ewan, where she will spend some time visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Robinson is taking his dinners with Mrs. Katherine Ludington. — The ladies of the Second Presterian church realized nearly $200 from the chicken pie supper held on Thursday night. The Westminister guild, which sold candy, made about $14. — A petition has been presented to the Delhi board of education asking that the Bible be taught in the school as a regular course and credit given therefore, as is done in many other places. — Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Paul celebrated their forty-fifth wedding anniversary Saturday by spending a few days in Binghamton, where they made their first stop on their wedding trip to Niagara Falls.

FORMER HOBART TEACHER DEAD

Mrs. John B. Rich, Formerly Miss Genevive Potts, Passes Away.

Hobart, Nov. 14. — Relatives here received intelligence Sunday morning of the death of Mrs. John B. Rich, which occurred at Iola, Kansas. Mrs. Rich was formerly Miss Genevive Potts and is a daughter of A. S. Potts of Cooperstown. She at one time taught in the High school here. She leaves her husband, a son aged six years and a daughter of but five weeks, also her father, and one sister, Miss Louise Potts, of Amsterdam.

Brief Notes.

District Attorney and Mrs. A. L. O'Connor left today for a few days' stay in New York city on a trip combining business with pleasure.—Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Storie of Delhi, on Saturday, Nov. 13, a daughter. —Walter and Stephen Rich and Miss Ethel Rich are visiting relatives in North Adams, Mass.

Dance at North Franklin.

North Franklin, Nov. 14. — There will be a dance at the home of Austin Kouse on the Outeout, on Friday evening of this week. Everyone is cordially invited to attend; ladies, please bring refreshments.

Gets 28 Eggs A Day Now, From 34 Hens

C. C. White, Well-Known Breeder, Tells How. Costs Nothing to Try.

"I gave Don Sung to 34 utility Buff Orpingtons and the egg yield increased from 4 to 28 a day. Don Sung is a wonder and I am now giving it to all my hens regularly."—Chas. C. White, Mgr., Cherry Hill Farm, Flackville, Ind.

Mr. White is the well known breeder and exhibitor. He wrote the above letter in December, after his test had shown a gain of 24 eggs a day from 34 hens. We will make you the same offer we made him. Here it is:

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be cheerfully refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) is a scientific tonic and conditioner. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health and makes her stronger and more active. It tones up the egg-laying organs, and gets the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather.

You can obtain Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer, or send $1.04 (includes war tax) for a package by mail. Burrell-Dugger Co., 214 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

The Store That Saves You Money

Re-Adjustment Sale

Bringing Prices Down to a Lower Level

This means just exactly as stated—It means our entire stock of many thousands of dollars of Men's, Boys', Women's and Misses' wearing apparel REDUCED to nearly one-half of former prices.

Truly a most sensational event. We emphasize that this is the most important merchandise offering since the great World War. High-Grade, dependable, stylish garments now offered by us at pre-war prices.

Here you will find genuine, uncompromising reductions which are absolutely BONA FIDE and which no competitor can touch. We've taken immediate advantage of lowering manufacturer's cost, bought for spot cash from makers and middlemen who have been compelled to let go their stocks, and in this sale we prove to the people of Oneonta that no store can match us.

MEN'S and BOYS' SUITS and OVERCOATS

SUIT PRICES SLASHED

In anticipation of future market conditions, we have revised downward the prices on our entire stock of suits and overcoats. When the woolen market broke a few weeks ago it indicated that clothing would soon go back to lower price levels.

We have taken time by the forelock and made our reductions now. This is a protection to our friends who may buy NOW, with the assurance that we have anticipated the coming deflation in clothes prices.

At 20 % DISCOUNT

You'll be surprised to see the truly remarkable display of winter Suits and Overcoats we have arranged at these popular prices.

Every one of these garments is of exceptional character and value—styles are new, tailoring of the best and fabrics are of the kind which in themselves make for style and serviceability.

This big-value surprise will bring a smile of satisfaction to all who see them.

WAR ON DISEASE WORLD WAR

Health Problems of the Remotest Land Is the Concern of All Peoples.

The war against disease is a world war. Commerce carries dangerous infections, as well as goods and ideas. The health problems of the remotest land concern all peoples. More and more, nations are coming to recognize their interdependence in health as in industry, government, science, and culture. There are even now foreshadowings of world-wide co-operation in combating the maladies which have long threatened humanity. For this new campaign leaders are needed to extend the frontiers of medical science, to teach, to organize, to administer. Demonstrations are required to convince communities and nations that diseases can be controlled and even eradicated. The Rockefeller Foundation, enlisted for this world-wide campaign against disease, is co-operating with many agencies in five continents, is fostering the growth of international confidence and good will, and is seeking the fulfillment of its chartered purpose—"to promote the well-being of mankind throughout the world."

Dark Outlook.

"Do you think the judge will be hard on me?" asked an offender who was waiting for that tardy official to return to his bench. "I don't know," said the court clerk. "He told me he was going to have some roast pork for lunch, and roast pork always disagrees with him."

"Tell your Mother

will stop that cough, Bill. My mother gives it to me when I get a cough and you don't hear me coughing all the time."

Find Austrian "Fortune" Worth 40 U. S. Dollars

Philadelphia. — An Austrian fortune was left to Casper Zoppel of Atco, N. J., who recently received a letter to the effect that he had fallen heir to 10,000 Austrian crowns. While members of Zoppel's family made plans to spend the money Zoppel consulted the Austrian consul and found that 10,000 Austrian crowns are worth exactly forty American dollars. The family has stopped planning.

ODDITIES OF GERMAN VOTE

Peculiar Sentiments Revealed in Recent Balloting for Members of Reichstag.

The total number of valid votes cast at the recent election in Germany for the 446 members of the reichstag was 26,017,590. The votes that had to be thrown out ran into the thousands. One woman wrote on her ballot: "I am voting for you majority socialists this time, but unless I can get Westphalian ham that is made in Westphalia from now on I'll never do it again." Quite a few votes were cast for the kaiser on the ground that "if elected the humiliation would serve him right." One man from Magdeburg deposited instead of his ballot a five-mark note without comment.

But the prize ballot came from Linden. It was a piece of wrapping paper, on which was written "Isaiah 12, 23-24." The verses read: "Show the things that are to come hereafter that we may know that ye are gods; yea, do good or do evil, that we may be dismayed and behold it together. Behold, ye are of nothing and your work of naught; an abomination is he that chooseth you."

In Moderation.

"Would you advise a candidate to stay on his front porch?"

"Yes," answered Senator Sorghum; "but only part of the time; just long enough to take care of his voice and get together a good bunch of speeches for delivery on tour."

Just It.

"I thought you said you had a fine ending to your automobile trip." "So I had." "Your chauffeur told me you were arrested for speeding." "Well, wouldn't you call a windup in the police court a fine ending?"

ITCH!

CHILDLESS WOMEN

Please Read This Letter And See What Normal Health Will Do For You.

Lancaster, Pa.—"I was weak and run down, had pains in my head, back and stomach all the time, and bearing down pains. I had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped me, so my mother got me to try it again, and I am now feeling better than I have for years. We were married sixteen years and had no children, but now we have a fine big boy and we always call him our 'Pinkham' boy. The doctor was afraid of my case as I was 41 years old when the boy was born but I came through all right. You can use this as a testimonial if you wish and I will certainly write to any one who writes to me about it." —Mrs. MARGARET G. HAVERCAMP, 529 Howard Avenue, Lancaster, Pa.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

MAGAZINE COVER GIRL.

Edna Bennett at Theatre First Three Days of This Week.

Edna Bennett, widely heralded as the Magazine Cover Girl, is to appear at the Oneonta theatre for the first three days of this week in conjunction with the regular feature photo play program. Manager Moore, who is always on the alert for the bigger and better things for his patrons, learned that Miss Bennett, through an error in bookings in the Keith booking office in New York, was to lose the first three days of this week, and immediately got in touch with Miss Bennett's manager and persuaded him to send Miss Bennett and her pianist to Oneonta for the first half of this week.

Miss Bennett has posed for numerous artists, right now, no doubt her smiling face adorns the cover of a stray magazine laying about the house. She sings "vamping" songs with delectable grace and is an attractive person. She has appeared in the movies, as well as in a musical production at the winter garden, and is now considering an offer from Manager Al Woods for a musical production to be made in the spring. Miss Bennett, during her engagement here will be accompanied by N. Willis Barteaux, who is a pupil of Paderewski. The offering will be mounted with special stage settings.

Changes in Chenango Co. Sanitarium.

The resignation of Dr. L. A. VanWagner as superintendent of the Brookside Crest sanitarium at Sherburne has been accepted and Dr. D. U. Gould, also of Sherburne, has been appointed as his succesor. The resignation of Dr. VanWagner, which was reluctantly accepted, was tendered on account of his advanced age and ill health and the fact that he had overworked for the benefit of the institution. Miss Campbell, who has been the acting head nurse, has also resigned and her place has been filled by Miss Elizabeth Frank, of Rome, who is a graduate nures of wide experience in tuberculosis cases.

TO AID CHILD FEEDING FUND

Oneontans May Send Contributions to Worthy Charity Through Daily Star —Subscriptions Aggregating $292.75 Received — Ten Dollars Will Save a Child.

Practically all of the city pastors yesterday alluded to the fund which the Literary Digest is raising at the suggestion of Herbert Hoover amounting to $23,000,000, required to save the children of Europe from starvation, and after endorsing it as worthy the support of all citizens, stated that subscriptions could be forwarded through The Daily Star, which will be pleased to receive and acknowledge them and forward the funds daily that instant relief may be administered.

At the First Methodist church Dr. Johns urged his people to give aid to this appeal, suffering children being objects that should touch the hearts of all. He was encouraged by a donation of $100 from O. B. Rowe to announce that all subscriptions could be made at the service and would be turned over to The Star. In all donations aggregating $420.75 were made, but only $292.75 were paid at the service. The other subscriptions will be announced when received at this office.

Secretary Hicks of the Chamber of Commerce, who wired asking the approval of the local effort from the Literary Digest, received a message in reply in part as follows:

"Will be glad to have the co-operation of the Oneonta Chamber of Commerce, and authorize you to have Daily Star acknowledge subscriptions sent direct to them or to you for the Child Feeding fund. This cause is a great one. It is a call to the fathers' and mothers' hearts of America and we hope Oneonta will come through strong."

The donations received through Dr. Johns and his people of yesterday are as follows:

FARMING IN JAPAN

Farming in old Japan is a picturesque occupation indeed. Implements used centuries ago are still in use and modern methods are rarely practiced. Instead of using modern methods of driving the chaff from the wheat this Jap girl farm hand uses an old bellows fan to blow the chaff.

Officer Brownell Stricken.

Bryce Brownell, a member of the local police force, is in the Fox Memorial hospital convalescing from a serious operation for acute appendicitis he underwent early Saturday evening.

Officer Brownell returned last Friday night from a two-weeks' hunting trip to the Catskills and appeared to be in fine health. At about 6 o'clock Saturday evening, however, he was taken suddenly ill at his home at 156 Main street, and was removed to the hospital in the ambulance. But an hour after he was stricken, the operation was performed by Dr. Cutler, assisted by Dr. Parish, and although the appendix had been ruptured and the patient was in a serious condition, Mr. Brownell withstood the ordeal well and reports last night were to the effect that his condition was very favorable.

LISTEN LESTER NOV. 19.

Popular Musical Comedy to Play Return Engagement at Oneonta Theatre.

No musical comedy of the Broadway season has achieved the popularity that has been won by "Listen Lester," which comes to Hathaway's Oneonta theatre Friday night, Nov. 19. Produced under the direction of John Cort, "Listen Lester" was welcomed into New York and soon was classified as the smartest dancing musical comedy of the year. The work of Harry L. Cort George E. Stoddard, and Harold Orlob, "Listen Lester" soon brought a goodly amount of fame to these three young men from the West. Its plot, smothered in captivating songs and snappy dances, concerns the tribulations of a flirtatious colonel, who only eludes one pursuing damsel to fall into the clutches of a more sophisticated widow. Pretty girls who crowd the southern winter resorts surround the colonel in Florida, a pert hotel clerk, a weak but willing porter, the Lester who listens much but not well, furnish the story with laughter and jokes that have become classics. The music is rollicksome, the costuming gorgeous, the whole a production which Oneonta has not seen for many a day.

Is Your Auto One-Eyed?

The danger of the practice of driving at night with but one headlight operating is again emphasized in an accident that happened between Pine Hill and Big Indian a week ago. Robert Thompson, hotel keeper at Pine Hill, was proceeding toward Big Indian, when he saw approaching what appeared to be a motorcycle light. It proved to be the one light (the right one) that was working on an Oakland car driven by a Shinhopple man. Mr. Thompson, not making allowance for the clearance he ordinarily would have, struck the car with considerable force, and both machines were badly damaged, but neither of the drivers was injured. Moral: Keep both your auto head lights in working order.

Everybody Should Be in Good Health

Most People Would If Their Blood and Circulation Were in Normal Condition.

Many men, women and children who are anaemic, run-down, thin and nervous, with no energy, no strength and no vitality miss all the joy of life, just because their blood is poor and circulation impaired. So many wonderful recoveries from just such conditions have come to our attention that we want everyone in this city to know about Vinol. It is not a secret remedy, but just a scientific combination of the most successful tonics known—Iron, Beef and Cod Liver Peptones and Glycerophosphates. Every run-down, nervous, anaemic, overworked reader of this paper should try it.
